Paris-London – March 2010 - Bart and Baker (www.bartandbaker.com) are two venerable French DJ/Producers who are a favourite of celebrities like Dita Von Teese, Marc Jacobs or Max Raabe.

There are many dj's playing retro style music but what makes Bart&Baker so unique is that they were the first back in 2005 to be able to mix old records with new, remix and revive old 1920's music, scratching 1940's and 50's tracks and generally making new dance music from a vintage source.

As Bart&Baker says, "we pride ourselves on reinvention, using elements that already exist like vintage music, performance styles and costume so we were able to please or uncover the swing music shades of rhythms to both vintage fans and modern kids".

Mid-april, the global independent label, Wagram Records (<http://www.wagram.fr/>) will release "Bart&Baker presents SWING PARTY", the first in 3 double compilation of Bart&Baker unique selection of vintage music and new big band blended with electro rhythm. The project will be available worldwide on CD and Digital Download.

The double CD affair contains 40 tracks.
